Story Corner

A bishop, preaching in his mitre, could not help overhearing the whisperings of two small children who sat just below the pulpit. "He's a king!" said one. "He isn't!" was the contemptuous reply: "this is church." "He is!" "No! he isn't!" "Well, then he's a clown!"

"And now," said the teacher, "we come to Germany, which is governed by the Kaiser. Tommy Jones, what is a Kaiser?" "Please, 'm," answered Tommy

Jones, "a stream o' hot water springin' up an' disturbin' the earth."

The New York Times quotes Mrs. Silas Bennett's philosophy. When some of her neighbors condoled with her for an accident, she replied cheerfully: "It shows it's no use worrying in this life. I've worried consid'ble over smallpox breakin' out in my big family. So fer, 'taint. Last summer I was real melancholic, fearin' I'd got an appendix, but I guess I ain't. An' through it all, it never onct occurred to me that I'd be the one to fall through them rotten old meetin'-house steps an' break my leg in two places, but I be."
